LILA

Good morning, Campers.

I need to apologize to Lila. I am badly behind in writing my BLABS and I have failed to show you the work of guest author, Lila. She wrote a short piece for the Blab and I want to share it with you. First, reposting some content from an issue a few days ago:

But that was not enough distraction for Lila. She took her net out to the woods and caught a bucket of frogs, tadpoles and crawdads. When she came back to the house she was covered in mud. Nana remarked on how Lila was covered in mud and Lila said with a big smile, "But it was so worth it!"

Nana called me to carry Lila straight to the bathtub to clean her up without tracking mud through the house.

But then last weekend we had a grand gathering for Mothers' Day and Lila and Elle were back in the woods catching frogs. This time they had rubber boots on so it was easier to keep the mud out of the house.

I'm sure you all saw the video.

Lila's Blab Contribution

I thought it should be posted exactly as written. Thank you, Lila! Nice work.

Hello everyone! For the BLAB I am going to talk about FROG CATCHING!!! OK here we go so where Theodore bridge is there is the very VERY VERY muddy stream is there are more frogs and I think no tad Poles I got NINE Frogs and six tad Poles without any help! So basically you will get SUPER MUDDY but it will be worth it because you will have so many frogs all so the ones there are WAAAAAA Y better behaved when you handle them! That is all I have to say. Love Lila

I will likely not post again for a couple of days. Nana and I will be going to a wedding tomorrow. Malik Jamaal Wylie, Nana's nephew, son of her brother, grand uncle Ron, will be getting married somewhere across the bay. Nana's sister, grand aunt Pat, will be coming back to Browns Corner for a couple of days and I will likely be distracted.

Love, Grampa
