Issue 1

January 2019

Fall/Winter Edition

The Incredible Cousins have had a very busy fall! Everyone returned to school and enjoyed Halloween and Thanksgiving festivities.

The Incredible Cousins are involved in a lot of activities at school, in their community and at church. They are very talented ballerinas, tennis/soccer players, artists, swimmers, actresses/actors, gymnasts, scouts, mathematicians, public speakers, writers, readers, scientists, musicians, singers, cooks, bakers and probably some things that have been left out.

Thanksgiving Pies

Nana and Grampa went to Maine during the summer of 2018 and brought back blueberries to make their first ever blueberry pie. The pumpkins for the pumpkin pies were grown at Browns Corner. There were also two apple pies.

Christmas 2018

Browns Corner was a busy place at Christmastime. Before Christmas, Auntie Jo and Uncle Chris visited Nana and Grampa. On Christmas Eve, the Sweeneys hosted their annual Seven Fishes Dinner at their home in DC. Nana, Grampa, and several of their dear friends were there – and there really were seven fishes served. They were mussels, clams, shrimp, caviar, salmon, trout, scallops and tuna.

Grampa made many batches of lefse and rullepulse that we all enjoyed.

On Christmas day, the Sweeneys and the Ahaghotus came to Browns Corner to begin the Christmas celebration. The next day the Houle Randalls arrived. There were lots of gifts exchanged.
